Analysts Agree. Bipartisan Support Steers Best Opportunity for DREAM Act's Passage

On March 6th 2007, Senators Richard Durbin (D-IL), Chuck Hagel (R-NE), and Richard Lugar (R-IN) reintroduced the American DREAM Act, S. 774. Its introduction comes just two weeks after the House's introduction of HR 1275 sponsored by Lincoln Diaz Balart (R-FL), Howard Berman (D-CA), and Royal Allard D-CA). Bicameral leadership and Bipartisanship indicate a clear collaboration for the bill.

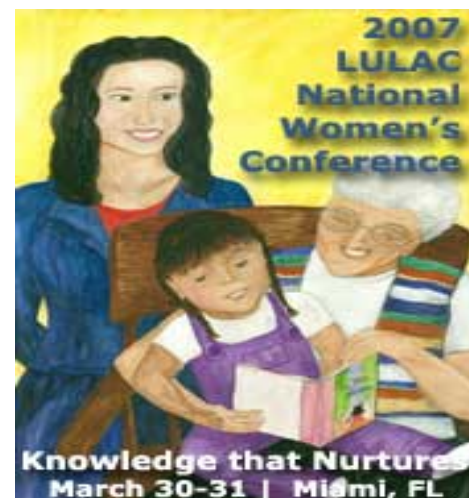

LULAC strongly urges an immediate passage. Each year 65,000 promising high school students are denied access to higher education. Without legal status, their doors are immediately closed, despite having lived the majority of their life in the United States, learned English, volunteered in their communities, and successfully graduated from high school.

The DREAM Act can help these displaced students - who are without documentation - contribute to the national economy and continue their professional careers through higher education.

This is a plea for you to act by urging your congressman and senators to move this legislation forward and champion its passage in this session. GO TO www.lulac.org to take action!

It's not just a DREAM anymore. It is a reality. Express your support now.
